

I strongly oppose the Commercial Bankers Association petition that would weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law. I voted for the Attorney General because I strongly support his efforts to eliminate intrusion into my home via telemarketers, and ask that this petition be denied.